

THE MORNING APPEAL.

SUNDAY JANUARY 26

ANTI-LYNCHING LAW.

The South Carolina Legislature is determined to prevent lynching. The Assembly has passed the Anti-Lynching bill, which provides that in all cases of lynching, where death ensues, the county where the lynching takes place shall be liable to exemplary damages in a sum not less than $2,000 to be recovered in a competent court by the legal representatives of the person lynched.

If this bill becomes a law it will act as a deterrent in the State. It is not likely, except in the most aggravated cases, that taxpayers will encourage mobs to take the law in their own hands when they have to foot a bill of not less than $2,000 for each lynching. They may, however, conclude that it is a cheaper way of getting rid of criminals than that prescribed by law. At any rate it shows a disposition on the part of South Carolina lawmakers to prevent a continuance of the lynchings, which have disgraced that and other Southern States.

Mr. Woodbury on the stand yesterday said the press had "become a perfect nuisance as they wanted the earth with a fence around it."

Mr. Woodbury gets $500 a month, to superintend a mill and then rakes in $25 more for one day's attendance a month on commissioner's meeting. We would hate to leave the fence around the earth over night if Woodbury wanted the lumber for firewood.

Our evening contemporary, the News, speaks of "30 pieces of gold received by Judas' cariot for betraying Christ." This is an error, he received 30 pieces of silver. Bad as Judas Iscariot was, he was no gold bug.

The Sarmann Murder.

At the recent session of the Grand Jury Judge Mack advised an investigation of the murder of Mrs. Sarmann, but no evidence was presented to the jury.

The jury will be called together again by the foreman before long, when it is probable that the murder will come up for consideration. It is hoped that the jury will make a special effort to ferret out the facts and serve them up plain and unvarnished, without regard to the consequences, Courier.

Sadler vs the State.

The case of Lieutenant-Governor Sadler vs the State of Nevada was argued in the District Court yesterday. He claimed $8 a day and mileage while the Governor was absent from the State. The case was argued by James Judge for the plaintiff and General Beatty for the State. The Court reserved its decision but intimated that it would allow the per diem asked but not the mileage.

A few days ago John C. Windler, an aged miner, committed suicide at Sawyers Bar, Cal. He placed a giant powder cartridge beneath his shirt, just over his heart, lighted the fuse, and calmly sat down in a chair and awaited death. His heart was torn into a thousand pieces and a hole blown through his body.

C. W. Friend reports three slight tremors of the earth yesterday morning; the first at 4:45; the second one minute and the third ten minutes later. The movement was East and West and was exceedingly light, the automatic tracer moving less than a quarter of an inch.

Preceding the Children's Sermon Sunday evening at the M. E. Church, there will be a song and praise service, and at the class Prof. Pierce will render a solo appropriate for the children. Let all turn out and have a good time, and encourage the little folks.

The reduction sale in footwear still continues in spite of the bad weather. Ed. Burlington gives his customers the full benefit of the low prices. Plenty of good substantial footwear and rubber goods on hand.

Bodie Index;—If a common man gets full and paints the town red it's a drunk. If a prominent citizen makes a trail like a scythe handle, he is only feeling good.

The Dispatch says that at Wadsworth there is a great deal of liquor sold to Indians right under the noses of the officers, who say it is hard to secure a conviction.

The "Arlington" long-cut tobacco in two-ounce foil is now on sale, both wholesale and retail at Chas. H. Kelly's, Arlington block. Trade supplied.

Bar silver 66½.
